

Endocrine Days, April 30, 2010
MOHAI (The Museum of History & Industry)
Seattle, Washington
www.endocrinedays.com

April 30, 2010

Museum of History and Industry Seattle, Washington

Check in begins at 7:30 am

7:45-8:25 Registration and Continental Breakfast

Lipids

Session Chair: Alan Chait, MD

8:30 – 9:15 Metabolic Syndrome and Lipids – Henry Ginsberg, MD, Columbia University, New York, New York

9:15-10:00 The Complexity of HDL- Gordon Francis, MD, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, British Columbia

10:00-10:30 Break, Vendor Session

10:30 – 11:15 Combination Therapy – Alan Chait, MD, University of Washington

11:15- 12:00 DM and CVD- Update in Screening, Prevalence, Treatment- Marshall Corson, MD, University of Washington

12:00-1:15 Lunch, Vendor Session

Year in Review of Diabetes

Session Chair: Ron Brazg, MD

1:15 – 2:00 Update on Markers in Diabetes – Dace Trence MD, University of Washington

2:00 – 2:45 Diabetic Kidney Disease- a 2010 Update– Raimund Pichler, MD, University of Washington

2:45 – 3:30 Science of Diabetes- an Update of Current Thoughts – Jerry Palmer, MD, University of Washington

3:30 – 4:30 Meet the First Year Endocrine Fellows – research presentations

4:30 Wine and Cheese reception following the Fellows presentations

Cost: $75.00 for RNs, NPs, PAs, RDs, CDEs (CME is available through your professional organization)

For registration please contact klmunger@q.com klmunger@q.com

Or you can reach us at our mailing address:

Endocrine Days
PO Box 22489
Seattle WA 98122
phone 206 417 3049